

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and clearly does not follow the standard of "equal time" with regard to political candidates!

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them, and enforce fairness rules. The FCC is not serving the American people if it allows a large media corporation to exert such unchecked influence on an election as important as this one.

I hope that the many complaints you are surely getting regarding this matter will move the FCC to action. If they cannot be counted on to do the right thing in a blatant situation such as this, they cannot be counted on at all. Thank you.
